

Others Research Summary of Engaged Literatures Supporting / Motivating?	Research Design What was the adopted methodology or design? Are hypotheses developed? What data collection and analysis methods were used? Summarise brief details of the sample and/or context	Findings / Results What are the findings, results, or emergent themes?	Phenomenon What ‘things’ are being investigated? List the main phenomenon and specific sub-phenomena
Observations and Arguments Issues / Themes? Gaps / Problems? FRAMING: what are the risks / costs of the gaps / problems?			Contributions What are the contributions of the research? HIGHER LEVEL OF ABSTRACTION: refer to a literature(s) or subarea of a literature and the prior contributions of articles to it CONTRIBUTION TYPE: empirical, theoretical, methodological, philosophical, practical
My Research Research Questions JUSTIFICATION: what are the benefits / value of the research questions?	Theory Summarise the key theoretical ideas What is the role of theory in the research?	Discussion Compare and contrast your findings / results with past research DETAILED AND HIGHLY SPECIFIED: refer to findings / results of articles	Future Research How should others use your work? What future research should be done and how can your research be incorporated into it?